Sagrada Família Basilica
Barcelona, Spain

La Sagrada Família is Antoni Gaudí's most famous, unique architectural masterpiece in Barcelona, considered by many to be the symbol of the city. The giant Basilica has been under construction since 1882 and is still unfinished. It is a breathtaking sight in its urban setting, with its twisted towers and pinnacles looming over the city. On completion it will be the tallest church in the world.

Ipanema Beach
Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

This stunning beach was made famous by the classic bossa nova tune 'Girl From Ipanema' and is the favoured destination of the 'beautiful people' for relaxation: sunbathing, swimming, sports and surfing. Set in one of the most exclusive neighbourhoods in Rio and flanked by the towering Dois Irmãos (Two Brothers) mountains, it is informally divided into sections delineated by postos, or lifeguard towers.

Viru Gate
Tallinn, Estonia

Viru Gate is a wide and welcoming entrance to the Old Town of Tallinn. Built in the 14th century, it formed part of its defences. On the south coast of the Gulf of Finland in north-western Estonia, Tallinn was once Europe's greatest fortified city, encircled by walls and 46 towers. There are still about 2km of walls and 26 towers, making Tallinn one of the best-preserved medieval cities in Europe.

Alpe di Siusi
South Tyrol, Italy

This stunning region contains the largest and highest alpine pasture in Europe, an area of 56km² and a high point of 2,350m. In early summer it has a huge variety of brightly coloured flowers, and the beautiful area is popular for climbing, walking, cycling and winter sports. There are panoramic views of the majestic peaks of the Western Dolomites, including the iconic 3,181m Sassolungo mountain.

Millaa Millaa Falls
Queensland, Australia

These spectacular waterfalls are located on the 15km Waterfalls Circuit, along with Zillie and Ellinjaa Falls in the Atherton Tablelands region near Cairns, a fertile plateau known for its charming towns, majestic waterfalls, pristine rainforests and hiking trails. Water plunges 18m down the basalt rock face into the refreshing pool below, surrounded by lush rainforest with a grassy viewing area.

The Acropolis
Athens, Greece

The steep-sided, flat-topped limestone rock of the Acropolis is the highest point of the city, rising abruptly 100m from its surroundings. Crowned by the dramatic ruins of the Parthenon temple, built during the 5th century BC and dedicated to the goddess Athena, it is considered the finest example of Greek architecture. It is constructed entirely of Pentelic marble, an enduring symbol of Ancient Greece.

Portland Head Lighthouse
Maine, USA

This historic lighthouse, in Cape Elizabeth, Maine, stands on a headland at the entrance of the primary shipping channel into Portland Harbour. Commissioned by George Washington and completed in 1791, it is the oldest lighthouse in Maine, with a white conical tower and a red-roofed keeper's house that is now a museum. Waves crash over the headland, whose rocks are formed of quartzite and grey phyllite.

Kasbah Amridil
Morocco

This fortress was built in the 17th century by the Nassiri family. Largely unchanged in over 300 years, the houses, streets and Kasbah walls are preserved as a living museum, featuring old wells, bread ovens and an ancient olive-oil press. Typical of oasis architecture in the Berber regions of southern Morocco, it is made from mudbrick and has square corner towers with geometric decoration.

Thean Hou Temple
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Thean Hou Temple is one of the largest Buddhist temples in Southeast Asia. Perched on a hill with panoramic views of the city, it was built in 1987 and is a very elaborate structure, with six tiers, imposing pillars, magnificent roofs, ornate carvings, statues and intricate decoration. The front entrance is a multi-arched gateway with red pillars, the colour symbolic of prosperity and good fortune.

Uppuveli Beach
Trincomalee, Sri Lanka

Colourful wooden boats rest on this long, palm-fringed beach of fine golden sand with crystal-clear waters, situated on the tranquil north-east coast of Sri Lanka. Trincomalee Bay is one of the world's greatest natural harbours, a historic city and home to many beautiful beaches. Towards the north of the bay there is a lovely lagoon with wooden huts, inhabited by local fishermen and their families.

The Great Pyramids of Giza
Egypt

The Great Pyramid of Khufu (Cheops) is the oldest and largest of the three pyramids towering above the desert plateau, 139m high, built between 2580 and 2560 BC. Egypt's pharaohs expected to become gods in the afterlife and built massive pyramid tombs, using millions of stone blocks, with remarkable geometric precision, as burial chambers, filled with all the things they would need in the next world.

Maloja
Switzerland

The charming alpine village of Maloja lies at an altitude of 1,815m at the border of Italian-speaking Switzerland, near the high mountain Maloja Pasa. It sits at the western end of Lake Sils between two fascinating landscapes: the Upper Engadin Lake District and the majestic granite rocks of the valley of Bergell. It has always attracted artists, and is popular for outdoor activities and winter sports.
